

Membership Benefits

- Join colleagues in your local area for educational events and social gatherings
- Receive breaking child health and advanced practice nursing news with highly valued NAPNAP Daily News
- Enjoy discounted prices on liability, health and disability insurance, peer organization memberships and more
- Access membership discount if employed at a NAPNAP group member institution
- Save with member-only discounts on advanced practice nursing and pediatric publications from Springer and select pediatric publications from AAP
- Get Pediatric News delivered free to your home or office and access your free Contemporary Pediatrics digital subscription

Education Benefits

- Access expert-developed, evidence-based discounted or free on-demand CE courses, including hard to find pediatric pharmacology, at PedsCESM
- Attend highly rated in-person national conferences and specialty events for special member discounted rate
- Stay up to date with evidence-based resources and access to scholarly clinical information in our highly cited Journal of Pediatric Health Care, including free CE
- Learn with TeamPeds Talks podcasts and TeamPeds Experts Live events

Professional/Practice Benefits

- Learn how to land your ideal professional role through NAPNAP's online career resource guide and Career Connection job center
- Develop or enhance leadership skills to advance your career
- Access important pediatric- and advanced practice-related position statements, white papers, clinical practice resources and practice FAQ
- Participate in our Child Health Policy Learning Collaborative and access free advocacy resources
- Broaden your experience and expand your network with our special interest groups
- Communicate with colleagues about key issues affecting your patients and practice in our online community, TeamPeds Member Network

What Members Say...

"I love my local chapter!" - Kelsey H.

"The National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners is my professional home because of the support of its leadership and the potential to grow within the organization." - Michelle K.

"NAPNAP offers me everything I need - continuing education, volunteer opportunities, advocacy and networking with peers." - Ashleigh B.